HERBAL TINCTURES:

PARKINSONS 50ml Drops

It is a progressive disorder that causes deterioration of the nerve centres in the brain responsible for controlling movement. As the condition progresses, muscular movement is affected. Eventually, co-ordination can become a nightmare and it is common for patients to experience tremors, rigidity and muscular spasms in different limbs and to varying degrees. Parkinson's is linked to nutrient deficiencies (especially B Vitamins, copper and iron). Metal toxicity linked to aluminium, mercury and manganese, a genetic predisposition, viruses, carbon monoxide, poisoning certain pesticides and some drugs, particularly those used for schizophrenia. Lack of the brain chemical dopamine exacerbates the condition and most patients take a synthetic form of the amino acid L-dopa to help restore brain function. Drugs associated with Parkinson's can cause lethargy and extreme mental confusion. As every case is unique I strongly recommend that anyone with Parkinson's consults a nutritional physician. The herbs in this product will improve the conditions present in Parkinson's disease. Rich source of alkaloids which can block the uptake of neuro-transmitters. Alpha-2 receptor improves the nervous system, improves neurological diseases and increases dopamine concentrations. It improves muscular coordination and mental deterioration.
